RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On July 1, 2020, Susan Laracy filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she sustained a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) caused by an influenza vaccine administered on November 28, 2017. Petition at 1. Petitioner further alleges that the vaccine was administered in the United States, that she suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months, and that there has been no compensation in the form of a civil award or settlement for Petitioner’s injuries. Petition at 2-3. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

On November 5, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report and Proffer on Damages at 1. Specifically, Respondent has determined that Petitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table and the Qualification and Aids to Interpretation for a SIRVA. Id. at 6. Respondent further agrees that Petitioner has satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Vaccine Act. Id.

In view of Respondent's position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
